Purpose of this Event :

It is celebrated on 21 February every year to respect our Mother Language, to spread awareness of linguistic, and cultural diversity, and to promote multilingualism. India is home to hundreds of languages and thousands of dialects which make its linguistic and cultural diversity the most unique in the world. Language is not only a means of communication but it also represents a diverse cultural and intellectual heritage.

It is celebrated due to the initiative of Bangladesh. On 21 February 1952 four students were killed while campaigning for the use of Bengali as their mother language officially in Bangladesh.

Beneficiaries: 61 Students and all Employees of the College

Evidence: Photographs of that Event.

A Report on GROUP DISCUSSION

❖ INTRODUCTION:

A group discussion refers to an extracurricular activity in which a collaborative dialogue takes place where participants exchange their ideas and viewpoints on a particular topic of discussion. It is a structured form of communication where individuals participate in a conversation to express their views and listen to others' perspectives on the same topic. It fosters their critical thinking and helps them to understand different perspectives and enhances the depth of understanding on the subject matter. The Aims and Objectives of this interactive platform enable the students to enhance their capabilities for problem-solving, decision-making, teamwork and learnings. Therefore group discussion is crucial for our students to develop their professionalism.

❖ AIMS AND OBJECTIVES:

The main objectives of organizing this group discussion were considered as assessment tools. They are –

- To share and exchange knowledge and ideas,
- To clarify doubts, and enrich one's understanding,
- To enhance communication skills, critical thinking, and problem-solving abilities, etc.
- To help them to understand different perspectives and learn from the experiences of other participants.
- To gauge the confidence level of students while expressing their ideas and opinions in front of others.
- To check communication and public speaking skills by evaluating their clarity, coherence, and ability to express themselves effectively.
- To assess knowledge about current events, news, and trends that shows their awareness and engagement with the world around them.

- To Evaluate thought process through cross-questioning by evaluating their spontaneity of delivering ideas, how well they can analyze and synthesize information, and how logically they can structure their arguments.
- To assess language skills such as pronunciation, vocabulary, and use of grammar.
- To Test teamwork and decision-making skills whether they have capabilities of a good listener, team spirit, and decision-making ability.

❖ IMPORTANCE OF GROUP DISCUSSION:

Group discussion is an important tool for personal and professional growth, offering several benefits to individuals and organizations. Here are some of the key benefits of group discussion.

- Exchange of ideas: GD provides a platform for individuals to exchange ideas and share knowledge. This can lead to new insights, perspectives, and solutions to problems.
- Skill development: It helps individuals develop important skills such as communication, critical thinking, problem-solving, and collaboration. These skills are essential in both personal and professional contexts.
- Increased confidence: Through group discussion, individuals can gain confidence in expressing their ideas and opinions and learn to articulate them effectively in front of others.
- Improved decision-making: Group discussion can lead to better decision-making by allowing individuals to consider different viewpoints and perspectives and weigh the pros and cons of different options.
- Team building: Group discussion can help build stronger teams by promoting collaboration, trust, and respect among team members.
- Learning from others: Group discussion allows individuals to learn from others with different backgrounds, experiences, or expertise. This can broaden their knowledge and understanding of a particular topic.

- Skill Enhancement: Participants practice expressing thoughts clearly and briefly, a valuable skill in many professional scenarios.

❖ ADVISORY TO THE PARTICIPANTS:

- First of all, all the eight speakers were allowed to speak for four minutes to present their views of their topic. They spoke frequently and gave relevant information to intrigue few questions among other participants.
- Participants were asked to have questions more straight manner and were advised not to be aggressive.
- Participants were strictly warned to refrain from using vulgar words, gestures if they do not like or agree with the other participants views and opinions.
- Participants were told to be respectful of each other and their views and opinions.
- All were allowed to keep note pads to note down relevant points and ideas.
- It is a group discussion and not a debate. So the participants were made to know this fact.
