LEGAL STUDIES IN INDIA

Department of Political Science Session:
2021-2022

Department of Political Science arranged a value-added Course on 'Legal Studies in India' in session 2021-2022 (course duration: 10th December, 2021 to 19th December, 2021). All the faculty members (total 4 faculties) enthusiastically involved with this course and motivate the students greatly. The Value-Added Course was a project that aimed to provide students with additional knowledge and skills beyond their regular academic curriculum. The course was open to all even semester students of the institution. There was a decent enrolment of students with participation of both boys and girls (total participants were 103). A legal system comprises of laws which set out our rights, duties and remedies and also the institutional mechanisms by which these laws can be implemented and enforced. These include administrative machinery, the judiciary and the police. The Constitution of India is the fundamental law of the land and the content and functioning of our legal system is governed by our constitutional values. The basic premise underlying a legal system is the belief in the 'rule of law'. We will impart a working knowledge of how we are governed and the role of citizens in democratic governance under rule of law. This course also highlights the concerns and challenges that lie ahead for effective implementation of Rule of Law.

The prime objective of the course has been to inculcate in our students the multi-dimensional connotations of legal system in India, enables them to decipher the complex legal systems and laws applicable in India. The course intends or the outcome of this course is to investigate the impact of laws on society in postcolonial state. This course covered the idea of law and justice in the context of free legal aid and the institutional role in providing it. Additionally, this course aimed to teach participants the fundamentals of legal aid from a historical perspective, to familiarize the participants with the very relation to legal aid, to educate the participants on the significant clauses of the Legal Services Authority Act, 1987, and to assess the participants with the practical met through legal aid. This course offered a unique opportunity for students to delve into the world of legal aid and understand its significance in promoting access to justice for all. By incorporate and practical insights, this course equips students with the necessary skills and knowledge to become effective advocates for social justice. We believe that this course will contribute significantly to the overall development of our students and their commitment to serving the community.

Prof. Subhadip Mukherjee, as course coordinator, also played a significant role in the successful implementation of the course and other faculties are managing various aspects of the course from the student's perspective and bridging the communication gap between students and our HOI enthusiastically helped a lot for the successfully completion of this course. The Course will give practical insights into criminal law and benefit students in their future academic pursuits and career in litigation. This Value Added Course is designed to help the students to comprehend the solution to the complex issues in the distinguished branch of Law. This Value-Added Course also on Legal study is an attempt to meet the needs of aspiring Students & Lawyers who have a keen interest to learn & practice of various legal issues.
