Report on NSS-conducted Extension Programme

Title of the Extn. Programme: Lost in the Screen: An Awareness Drive on the Horrors of Mobile Gaming

Date of the Programme: March 10th 2023

Venue of the Programme: Brindabanpur S.S. High School, Brindabanpur, Nowda

Introduction

The JRM NSS team undertook a robust awareness initiative on March 10th 2023 at Brindabanpur S. S. High School on the colossal dangers of mobile gaming addiction among the adolescent.

Objectives

The Indian youths are getting addicted to the mobile gaming in a dangerous rate. Particularly the adolescent boys are the worst victim of it. It has assumed the shape of a pandemic. It is sucking the vitals of the youths and reducing them to non-thinking brute bereft of normal human emotions and moral compulsions. They are becoming school drop-outs, child labourers, and sometimes criminals. Education is badly impacted. The Gen-X is grossly led astray from the human virtues. They are madly obsessed with the screen. It has become mandatory for all NGOs and responsible citizen to work hand in hand to save the youths from the gaming addiction. So, the NSS unit of the college had conducted a seminar.

Activities Conducted

The programme included the following activities:

1. Banners, flexes, and festoons were displayed
2. Seminar conducted
3. Banners, flexes, and festoons were displayed
4. Counselling was conducted
5. Leaflet distributed

Participation

The college NSS unit incorporated 19 active members in its campaign guided by 3 faculty members. All the students of class VIII to X comprising around 400 students joined the seminar. The honourable head master, the assistant teachers and NTSs offered all sorts of assistances required.

Programme Outcomes

The mentoring faculty members delivered lively and thoughtful lectures to the students and showcased the deadly impacts of the gaming addiction. The NSS members displayed the slogans against addiction. The students warmly interacted with the experts. The mentors showed them how to vanquish the addiction and get back into the normal lives. The students were delighted by the moral support and guidance. All the students unitedly rose against the demonic digital threats.
