Name of Program: One Day State Level - Seminar on "Time and Transience in Ket's Odes: A Poetic Dissection"

Date: 17th August 2023

Organized By: Department of English and IQAC, JRM College

The seminar on "Time and Transience in Keats' Odes" achieved its objective of fostering an enriched understanding of the intricate themes woven into the poetry of John Keats. Participants gained profound insights into Keats' exploration of mortality, the ephemeral beauty of life, and the relentless passage of time through his celebrated works.

Key Outcomes:

1. In-Depth Literary Exploration:

- o The keynote speaker, Prof. Somnath Barui, offered a masterful analysis of Keats' odes, delving into philosophical reflections in "Ode to a Nightingale," "Ode on a Grecian Urn," and "To Autumn."
- o Themes of transience and timelessness were explored, providing attendees with a nuanced appreciation of Keats' poetic vision.

2. Active Participation and Engagement:

- Students, faculty members, and literary enthusiasts engaged in vibrant discussions, sharing interpretations and enhancing collective understanding.
- o Interactive discourse underscored Keats' relevance in addressing universal human experiences.

3. Intellectual Enrichment:

- Prof. Barui's erudite presentation not only elucidated complex literary concepts but also inspired participants to explore Keats' works with renewed vigor.
- o Attendees departed with an enriched perspective on the poet's genius and his ability to transcend temporal boundaries.

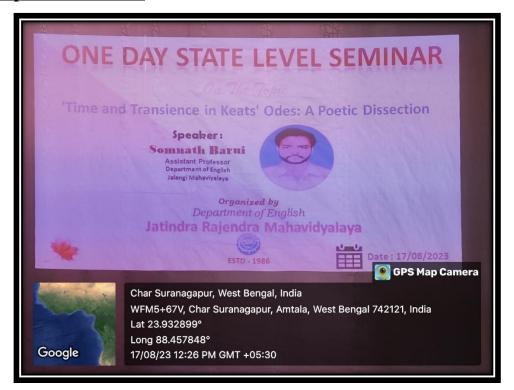

4. Efficient Event Execution:

The seminar's seamless organization, highlighted by punctual proceedings and an engaging format, was appreciated by participants and organizers alike.

Final Remarks:

The event concluded with expressions of gratitude to Prof. Barui for his enlightening discourse, as well as to the organizers for their dedication and smooth facilitation. The seminar left a lasting impact, encouraging further scholarly inquiry into Keats' timeless poetry and the universal themes of time and transience.
