About the College

Jatindra Rajendra Mahavidyalaya, established on Dec. 6, 1986, is a general degree college located in Amtala, Nowda in the district of Murshidabad. It offers undergraduate courses in Humanities and Social Science subjects. Formerly the college was affiliated to the University of Calcutta and presently the college is affiliated to the University of Kalyani. The college is recognized by the University Grants Commission (UGC) under 2(f) and 12 (B). The college is situated within a small but beautiful campus of 1.87 acres in a small village called Amtala which is in the Nowda Assembly segment of the Berhampore parliamentary constituency in Murshidabad District. The railway station nearest to the college is Beldanga at a distance of 23 kms from the college campus. The college offers courses under humanities and social science faculty comprising eight (8) departments. A variety of teaching and learning techniques are employed to impart knowledge and skills to students. In 2024 the college was awarded "B" grade (3rd Cycle) by the National Assessment and Accreditation Council (NAAC).

About the Department

Our College Jatindra Rajendra Mahavidyalaya established on 1986. From the very beginning Bengali Department also started along with programme Course. Our Bengali Department achieved a graceful position in K. U. and in this respect Kalyani University gave the permission to open Honours Course. And in this context Bengali Honours had been started its journey from 1996. Our full time faculty members are two Associate Professors. Beside them at present three invitee teachers are engaged to teaching our students. Though our teachers' strength is not strong enough, yet our teachers' dedication and sincerity enriched our department spontaneously. The result of our Bengali department is remarkable in Murshidabad district as well as Kalyani University.

Vision & Mission of the Department

Vision:

BENGALI Department is committed to strengthening its commitment to students success & broadening its recognition for excellence in teaching and community service. It is not enough to have a good mind. The main thing is to use it well. All knowledge can not be materialistic & practical. Therefore choice to study Bengali helps to shade their fanatic mentality and help them to develop internally.

Mission:

- I. To reach Bengali Language and Literature to the Bengali speaking all over the world.
- II. To prepare a student such that, when leaving college after completion of the three-year degree course, he/she is equipped with a positive frame of mind, has basic communication skills, should have acquired the ability to explain something logically, and above all, should have developed a balanced personality.
